Finch pitched a strong game, having only one bad inning when Wake Forest bunched three hits, a home run by Vasey, a two-bagger by Ferris and Herndon's single, netting two runs.

PARKTON LOSER TO YOUNG MEN'S CLUB, FAYETTEVILLE

Fayetteville, April 21.—Erratic support caused Williamson, pitching for Parkton, to lose a beautiful pitchers' duel to Fisher of the Young Men's club, of this city, here yesterday afternoon by a 4 to 0 score. Both twirlers pitched good ball and neither deserved to lose. Errors by Williamson's teammates list in three runs in the fifth and sixth innings. Then the infield became so engrossed in an argument with the umpire in the seventh that McNell's was allowed to steal home with Fayetteville's fourth run. Each pitcher allowed five hits. Williamson fanned 15 men, whiffing six of the first seven batters that faced him. Fisher fanned one. Each man walked two, both of the Parkton pitcher's passes turning into runs.
Williamson not only pitched a good game but had a perfect batting record. He walked once, was hit once, and made two singles. Ewing got two of Fayetteville's five hits. McNell's short-stopping and Person's catching were fielding features.

THEATRICAL

It's a sad business—this sleep walking business. But, oh, well, if a lady walks in her sleep and insists upon coming into Mr. Rawberry's room despite the protests of her husband, what can anyone do about it? It certainly is not done in the best regulated apartment hotels, but apomnambulism is something that cannot be guarded against. Mr. Rawberry was very anxious that the lady should not come anywhere near him, as her husband had, on many previous occasions, threatened him that if he, said husband, ever caught Rawberry even looking out of the corner of his eye on a dark night in the general direction of his, said husband's wife, there would be an assault, murder in the first degree, and a general massacre, all committed on one and the same person, i.e. Mr. Rawberry.
It is all in "Caught in a Skyscraper" that great two-reel L-Ko scream on today's bill at the Bijou. Pretty Gertrude Selby is a sleep walker—she works while they sleep. In one scene she is up high on the ledge of the skyscraper, following the straight and narrow path which leads to destruction on the street 17 stories below. It is a gay life if one doesn't weaken. Others in the melees are Harry Gribbon, Vin Moore and May Emory.

WAKE FOREST WINS OVER ELON COLLEGE IN TRACK MEET

Elon College, N. C., April 21.—Wake Forest won in the track meet here yesterday over Elon 94 to 32 points. Elon scored only two firsts, in pole vault and hammer throw, and only four seconds, in shot put, pole vault, one-half mile and discus. Wake Forest succeeded in winning all nine points in the broad jump. The locals were handicapped by having several of their best men out of the game because of sickness.

Thrilling with pulsing emotions, hinged on a theme of vital human appeal to everyone, as it concerns the happiness and the welfare of the girls and women of our nation, "Souls in Bondage" is designed to realize, delicately, yet forcefully, a strong moral lesson as intense as it is gripping and should prove a vital factor in any entertainment in which it is shown for betterment of certain conditions that exist.

Two varying strains of character appear in two sisters. In childhood the older, nobler-minded, self-sacrificing, greedy pleasure loving, docile, accepts these favors indulgently. It is frankly a tragical preachment. It is an open page from every day life. And with the closing scenes far removed from the hum-drum of country life and the flash of city gaiety, transplants us to the blood-scarred fields of battle, where, as nurse, the older girl is learning that real, lasting, soul-satisfying happiness comes only through self-fergful service to humanity.

Nance O'Neil's breadth of emotional expression finds in this "Love's Misere" the ablest and fullest scope, and she contrasts the two sides of human life—the good and the bad, teaching a strong moral lesson that must appeal to every sensible person.

Today at the Grand lovers of good comedy are in for a treat. The management has booked one of those great special production, Keystone comedy features, "The Little Teacher," in which is featured a big bunch of large stars, including Mabel Normand, "Fatty" Arbuckle, Owen Moore, the husband of Mary Pickford, and Mack Sennett himself, the producer of all the Keystone.

"The Little Teacher" is a plot from the first to the last—one continual round of fun and frolic. "Fatty" Arbuckle who has not been seen in Wilmington in a long while, takes a leading role, playing opposite that pretty Keystone star, Mabel Normand, better known as "Keystone Mabel". Then there's Owen Moore and Mack Sennett himself bring up the rear. It's a great treat—and don't you miss it.

"Oscar the Oyster Opener" is a great Falstaff comedy feature, that is also on today's all-comedy line-up. Then there's the current number of "See America First" with its incident cartoon comedy "Keeping Up With the Joneses." It's a great all-comedy day at the Grand.

EVANGELIST MAKES POWERFUL APPEAL IN GREAT SERMON

with his enthusiasm; of St. Paul and we are swayed by his intellect, but we read the story of Judas with perfect horror, and he brings to our attention the picture of a lost opportunity, for he might have been true; of heartless betrayal, for notwithstanding the fact that he knew that Christ was true, he sold Him. As we read of him we hear the clinking of the thirty pieces of silver, as he doubtless hears it today himself, and we behold him in his miserable death, which is an illustration of the text, "The wages of sin is death."

"The Scriptures concerning him are no so very clear. The four Gospels tell us of his call to service, and the account of the call in each is the same, except he is differently named. St. Matthew and St. Mark speak of him as a betrayer, and St. Luke calls him a traitor, while St. John says he is a devil. The following incidents are the striking points in the story of his life. His rebuke of the woman—St. John 12:4-6, when she poured out the ointment in the presence of Jesus, and this rebuke shows the wickedness of his nature. His bargaining with the enemies of Jesus for his betrayal, St. Matthew 26:14-16 and this shows the heartlessness of his nature. His delivery of Jesus into the hands of his enemies, St. Matthew 26:47-49, and this is his final act of betrayal. The story of his awful end. His remorse is pictured in St. Matthew 27:3-4, and his suicide graphically described in St. Matthew 27:5.

Why Was He Chosen?
"So many times we hear people saying, 'Why did the Lord ever choose him?' but it is just as great a problem to know why the Lord ever chose any of us. We know our weakness; we know how faulty we are, and it is one of the marvels of His grace that He called us to follow Him. There are those who say that Jesus did not know concerning Judas, and that his moral failure was a surprise to our Lord, but this is a very incorrect position to take. Let us not limit our Lord in His knowledge; remember His statements in St. John 6:64, 6:70 and 13:10. I think he was chosen in order that he might serve as a great warning to us all. The Bible is full of such warnings. There is Jonah seeking to go to Tarsus when God wanted him at Nineveh, a striking warning to all who would go contrary to the law of God. There is Jacob deceiving his father, and being deceived by his sons, proving that what we sow we reap. There is Esau, who sold his birthright for a bowl of soup, showing that things done cannot be undone. There is Saul sparing Agag and the Amalekites, and being destroyed himself, proving that our sins will find us out, and Judas is just the story of a lost opportunity."

"It was once pastor of a church in Schuylerville, New York, where stands the famous Burgoyne Battle monument. I went one day to see it for the first time. It seemed to me to be perfect, and as you climb the steps in the interior of the monument, the story of that conflict and victory may be read in the tablets on every side, but when I studied the monument from the outside, I found that there was a niche in each side of the monument, and that only three of them were filled with the statues of distinguished men. I called the attention of my friends to what I thought was an unfinished piece of work, only to have him tell me that was the sad story of the monument, and that the three niches were filled by Benedict Arnold if he had been true, but like Judas Iscariot, he was false and the niche was vacant. He would be sad indeed if God had planned for you, and you should make it a niche for you to fill and it should remain unfilled, and Judas Iscariot stands out before us warning us of this danger."

A Lesson to Christians.
"His names are many. He is a betrayer, a traitor, a thief and devil, but the most significant name that can be applied to him would be that of 'castaway,' for a 'castaway' is one who has been set aside because he can be no longer useful. Alas, there are many ministers sometimes who lose the true conception of the deity of Jesus; who lose confidence in the Bible as the Word of God, and they drift and are set aside. Some fall morally and some are set aside because they are set aside and become castaway. The sin of Judas made slow progress, but sure progress. His initial sin seems to me to have been ambition. How many have wrecked their homes just here because of social ambitions, commercial ambitions, selfish ambitions; their children have faded and they themselves have drifted. Ambition with Judas gave way to dishonesty, and he became a thief. The sins of our lives are like links in a chain, and sooner or later they will bind us, and Judas Iscariot swinging himself out into Eternity is an awful warning of danger ahead."

The End.
"Judas was heartless in his treatment of Jesus. It was after the most touching scene of the life of our Lord, after He had been in Gethsemane; after He had bowed on His knees in agony, while the blood-drops were still upon His face, that Judas went forward to kiss Him, and thus to betray Him."

CHAPMANISMS

Judas Iscariot was an arch hypocrite, but he has many counterparts in the life of today.

When you are criticising the hypocrisy of the Church, do not forget to pay a tribute to the faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

There were twelve Apostles and only one of them finally disgraced his Lord.

St. Peter failed as well as Judas, but he repented, while Judas plunged the deeper into sin.

The difficulty with us today is not found in the fact that we sin, but that when we sin we do not sincerely and honestly repent.

Jesus was absolutely fair with Judas Iscariot, and He is also fair with you. It is because He has dealt fairly with us that our judgment will be the more severe if we finally reject Him.

Up to the very last moment when Judas Iscariot left the feast with Jesus he could have turned away from sin and been true.

Judas Iscariot with his own hand closed the door of hope, and the same has been true of every man since who has been hopeless.

—From sermon by Dr. Chapman at the Tabernacle last night.

A COSMOPOLITAN COMPANY

Where Chapman-Alexander Members Hall From — Five Americans, Three From England—One Australian.

Speaking of things cosmopolitan, Wilmington has something to offer in this line just at present. It is the Chapman-Alexander party, the members of which are drawn from countries separated by many leagues of sea. In this band of workers in the vineyard are five Americans, three others from England, and one Australian, who may be said to be a kind of distant relation to an Englishman.

Dr. Chapman, Mrs. Chapman, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Potts and Mr. Mills are the American representatives on this "Peace Commission." Mrs. Alexander, Mr. Albert Brown, and Mr. Barragough hail from the United States, while Mr. William Rock is the lone member from Australia.

Starting with Dr. Chapman, we find that he was born a Hoosier, although he may now be termed a citizen of the large, for he has preached the Gospel in almost every English speaking country. Mrs. Chapman comes from an old and honored New England family, and her home town is Providence, Rhode Island. Mr. Alexander should feel at home in Wilmington, for he is native of the soil, a Southerner, born near Knoxville, Tenn. He is half English, for the "better half" of the Alexander family, Mrs. Alexander, was born and reared in England.

Mr. L. M. Potts, secretary to Dr. Chapman, is the only New Yorker in the party, while Mr. E. A. Mills of the book department hails from Georgia. Mr. Albert Brown, who in addition to being a wonderful singer, is the tallest member of the party, standing six-three in his shoes, is a native of Nottingham, England. The gifted pianist, and the "short" of the party, Mr. Henry Barragough, comes from Bradford, England, and still has the Yorkshire accent thick on his tongue.

Mr. William W. Rock, Mr. Alexander's secretary, is the farthest from home. He hails from Melbourne, Australia, where he was on the staff of the Hansard, the official publication of the federal parliament, before he joined Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander during one of their meetings in the Antipodes seven years ago.

NOTE TO GERMANY WAS DELIVERED BY GERARD THURSDAY

It is a place of melody. They sing "It is Heaven" and it is heaven to hear them sing. They get through more work too. Third, it helps people to live right. In one of the Melbourne suburbs a woman came into a butcher's shop one morning with a very happy expression on her face. A gentleman who had been a prominent worker in our mission was surprised to see her smiling, because she had always been very sad and melancholy. He asked her what was the reason for the change. "My husband was converted the other night," she said. "He used to ill-treat me before, and our home was miserable. But now it is quite different. We both go about the house singing 'It is Heaven,' and the whole place seems brighter."

This hymn has helped others. It can help you. Sing it!

JAPAN RENEWS OBJECTION TO THE IMMIGRATION BILL

President to Confer With Leaders to Modify Proposed Measure.

Washington, April 21.—Japan has renewed her objection to provisions in the pending bill which are construed as virtually enacting into law the celebrated Root-Takahira agreement for the restriction of immigration to the United States and as including Japanese with Hindus in an excluded class.

The administration, it was said today, fears difficulty in carrying out terms of the bill so as to avoid wounding Japanese feelings and to that end President Wilson soon will confer with House and Senate leaders.

THOMAS HARRIS IS SHOT TO DEATH BY SON-IN-LAW

Reunion Davis, of Near Asheville, Being Hunted by Sheriff's posse.

Asheville, N. C., April 21.—Thomas Harris, 67 years old, a farmer living near Barnardsville, 25 miles south of this city, was shot and instantly killed this afternoon by his son-in-law, Bunton Davis, 35, following a dispute over a horse.

According to testimony before the coroner, April 18, Harris accused Davis of having stolen a horse from his land and in the heated altercation that followed, Davis drew a revolver and fired twice at Harris, both bullets taking effect in the deceased's heart. Following the shooting Davis disappeared in the woods and up to midnight tonight had not been captured.

He is being followed by a sheriff's posse.

The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death from bullet wounds inflicted by Davis.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1916

TOP OF THE MORNING.

A song for our banner! The watchword recall,
Which gave the Republic her station!
"United we stand, divided we fall!"
It made and preserves us a nation!
—GEORGE F. MORRIS.

Sent word first and then mentioned it to Congress.

Lots of us would like to get an insight to the outlook.

May is next on the calendar and then comes the June bride.

What's the use to send a man down town for a sample of "one brown"?

A young man says he doesn't want war but he is afraid that war will want him.

The committee on ingredients for a fishing frolic reported "nothing doing." Fishing frolic postponed.

The rural credit problem will be solved as soon as a farmer's land asset becomes convertible into collateral for a loan at the bank.

Speaker Champ Clark got into a Republican banquet, but he got more of it into him than he got into it. Of course, he made the most of it.

A contemporary inquires: "What can an editor do with his problems?" How about persuading her to spend a while at Wrightsville Beach this summer?

Take it easy till the enrolling officers comes around to call you to the colors. You might see him first, but he will see you last, sooner or later already.

When the Chicago convention meets, T. R. is going to recognize a lot of stand-patters as a gang of porch climbers who are indifferent about saving the Nation's soul.

"Greetings," said one citizen to another. "By granny, I feel bad," replied the other. "Well, why don't you quit being bad so you won't feel bad enough to tell it?" rejoined his old pal.

Probably the pacifists think the old rule will be worked off on them as innocent bystanders who have to do the fighting while the jingoes keep on doing the talking. Never saw it fall. Hot heads and cold feet too often go together.

Fashion notes for men mention that whiskers are going to be in style again.
Maybe so, but men who have had their whiskers pulled in times gone by don't propose to wear any more whiskers so long as they can get a shave for 35 cents.

It is curious how any fellow wants to die for some girl who is dying for some other fellow. He ought to know that there are 'tween thousand other girls that are worth living for. A fellow that's game wants to live as long as he can so he can see as many North Carolina girls as possible.

A Republican State convention held in Macon, wrote into its platform a plank condemning lynching. Another Georgia Republican State convention was held the same day but as it assembled in another city, Atlanta, neither of the conventions was lynched.—Columbia State.

Mr. Olliam Grisom, of Greensboro, secretary of the Republican State committee, has forwarded his name to the State Board of Education as a candidate for Congress from the fifth district.
Grisom states he is showing for the Republican nomination. However it makes no difference who is nominated, the Fifth district will again return its distasteful Democratic representative. Mr. Charles Manly Stedman, who presides in Washington challenge National honor for North Carolina. The Republicans of the Fifth ought to join the Democrats and make Mr. Stedman re-election unanimous.

NEW FIELDS OF INDUSTRY FOR THE SOUTH.

If the South knew itself as it should,
others would not have to come into its midst and point out the opportunities in Southern resources. We could see them ourselves and be able to point them out to others. The South, of course, recognizes some of her great resources, but the trouble with us is we do not care to avail ourselves of them but invite others to come from abroad for the purpose of developing them. We invite Northern capital to come South for opportunities, whereas, if we will only set busy with some of our opportunities, we can go after Northern capital and get it. Of course, it requires capital to develop our resources, but, if there are opportunities in them, we can take the initiative and call for help.

In Savannah last Wednesday, Mr.
E. A. Brand, assistant chief of the United States Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, delivered a speech before the National Basket and Fruit Manufacturers Association. In the course of his address he outlined a number of agricultural and industrial opportunities which the war in Europe has brought to the Southern States.
The field for development in the South is really limitless, and, fortunately,
where there are rich resources of one kind in one state there are equally as good ones in other states. Said the assistant chief of the bureau of commerce:

"One of the industries of great present interest, in which the South expects to have a sure future, is the production of chemicals of various kinds.
In addition to its petroleum, which by the Rittman process can be made to give up benzol and toluol, the raw materials for the production of chemicals are high in price, the South has many other materials which are now shipped in the crude state, which, used as the base of a chemical industry, would increase many fold the returns which they bring to this section. In Louisiana we have the greatest sulphur mine in the world and immense deposits of almost chemically pure salt which by relatively simple processes could be converted into sulphuric acid, hydrochloric acid, sodium hydroxide, sodium carbonate and other chemical products.

"A great many people think that cotton constitutes the bulk of agricultural products in the South, yet in the last year the total value of the cotton crop was only $750,000,000, while the total value of all agricultural products of the Southern states was $3, 600,000,000. The total increase in agricultural production for the last year, 60 per cent is credited to the South. While the cotton crop decreased 22 per cent, according to an estimate made last December, the corn crop increased in quantity 32 per cent, and the combined production of wheat, corn and oats in quantity showed an increase of over 29 per cent. These figures show how rapidly the Southern farmers can readjust themselves to abnormal conditions? And in the end the European war may in this respect prove a boon to the South.
It has convinced large sections of Southern people that they can not build their economic life on cotton alone."

Mr. Brand's address shows that he has noticed that we are taking advantage of some of our great agricultural resources and doubtless the achievements of Southern agriculture as mentioned by him have made an impression on many intelligent men at the North. The South is no longer a one-crop country and sooner or later the world will find it out. We have begun to know our opportunities in agriculture and our disposition to take advantage of them is giving practical publicity to the South in a way to beat all other kinds of publicity. When we do things the world finds it out through publications that always pounce upon the things that are notable. Even if the South has numerous untouched opportunities, Southern progress is so notable in many respects that it is getting noised abroad.
Mr. Brand himself had to turn aside to make this remarkable statement concerning the growth of manufacturing in the South:

"It is surprising, but true, that manufactured products in the South greatly exceed in value the products of the farm. It is probably aggregating about four billion dollars, or about 18 per cent of the total for the country. According to Census figures for the entire country, of the 262 different lines of manufacture 236 are already carried on in the South. Taking a few of the lines which extend larger into our exports, we find that the South increased its production of agricultural implements from $2,611, 000 in 1899 to $3,916,000 in 1909; its output of canned and preserved goods from $20,058,000 to $25,380,000; of carriages and wagons from $20,213,000 to $31,482,000; of men's clothing from $43, 048,000 to $72,790,000; of flour and grain-mill products from $108,689,000 to $200,855,000; of foundry and machine shop products from $84,579,000 to $95, 975,000; and of leather goods from $14, 018,000 to $25,002,000. These random figures further illustrate the varied character and the rapid growth of the manufacturing industries of the South.
In the cotton goods trade, the chief industry turning out goods ready for consumption nine states in 1909 produced $232,565,000 worth of cotton goods, as compared with $97,454,000 worth in 1893. In 1914 the consumption of raw cotton by Southern mills exceeded that of the New England mills by 772,374 bales, or about 375, 000,000 pounds.

"With a number of large deep-water ports, well sheltered, and generally having river as well as rail connections with the interior, the South has ample opportunity to place its goods on shipboard at reasonable cost. Once on board, in normal times, the destination makes little difference in cost.
Australia can be reached as cheaply by water from a Southern port as Minnesota can be reached by rail from Massachusetts. The number of steamship lines from Southern ports is growing steadily, and as the European trade is well served, the new lines are opening new territories to Southern manufacturers.

"Although the figures show a wide range of products, the production of semi-manufactured products still far exceeds that of finished products. As recently stated by a student of the subject, 'A ton of iron ore shipped from one state to another, the new lines provides for less than one day's work for one man; if shipped as a stove it returns $40 and provides work for ten men.' Let me express the hope that the South will proceed regardless of

THE DYE INDUSTRY PROSPECTS

The Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter, one of the greatest chemical authorities in America, does not seem to think protection for the new American dye industry is so much a factor in establishing the industry as is the extensive resources in this country for carrying on a huge dye industry of its own.
At present there is no competition at all with the German dye manufacturers, but the Reporter admits that there is a certain amount of plausibility in the arguments advanced in behalf of tariff protection for the industry at the start.

That publication asserts that "there seems to be no doubt that aniline dyes, which are derived from coal tar by-products, can eventually be produced as economically in this country as abroad, given the basic material, rich gas coal, plants of sufficient size and of adequate mechanical and chemical equipment, and laboratory skill so essential to successful economical production." We lack the laboratory-factory equipment that Germany already has, but the Reporter makes this interesting declaration:

"That such equipment may yet be vouchsafed us—either by national support of the dye industry, or by the participation of producers of the basic benzol, toluol and xylol in large scale plants. It is probable that the company in view of the developments of the past week, and the announced participation, with unlimited capital, of the huge steel-producing plants of the country through the by-product coke industry. Receiving its first genuine impetus soon after the outbreak of the war, the dye industry has been the beneficiary of the consequent demand for the constituents for use in the manufacture of high explosives, the by-product coke industry has proved a profitable sideline since its inception, but to no one were its possibilities brought home so particularly as during the week just closed.

"It is now announced from Pittsburgh that the Carnegie Steel Company and other affiliated steel interests have acquired the control of the richest belt of gas coal in this country, and that two huge by-product coke plants are being erected near Clairton, Pa., and at Cleveland, Ohio, at a cost of approximately $30,000,000. Other plants are to be erected in the future, and though this has not been confirmed from authoritative sources, that all of the plants of the Carnegie company, following the completion of the plant at Clairton, will be equipped with complete chemicalization plants for producing benzol, toluol, coal tar, dyestuffs and sulphate of ammonia, and that the entire interest in the future must be considered among the largest factors in the world's dyestuffs production.

"That these deductions are not overdrawn, insofar as the production of benzol and toluol are concerned, may be inferred from the reports of tests made of Pigeon Creek belt gas coal—now controlled by the present prices paid for benzol and toluol, an approximate value of $10 per ton for coke and chemicals produced, which makes it a most attractive side issue for the steel companies even in normal times."

The steel people do not seem to be standing back on the matter of protection, but in all probability they will get a reasonable and adequate amount of it. It is easy to observe, however, who will control the dye industry, once it is established. The country doesn't care who owns it just so it does not become an oppressive monopoly and prove a hindrance instead of a help to American textile manufacturers.

THE ANTITHESIS CANDIDATE

The New York Tribune should observe that Colonel Roosevelt is no longer available for the presidential nomination "because he is the antithesis of Wilson." Antithesis nothing! The Colonel's "heroic mood" claim upon Americans voters has gone under a cloud. He declared that no Chicago convention need think of nominating him unless the country was in a heroic mood and ready with Teddy to do the doable or the undoable, whatever it is. The Colonel hasn't said what he would have done as to either Germany or Mexico, and he has stoutly refused to say what it is that he would do if he were president, yet he insists that heroism must be manifested by the American people if they expect him to stand for the presidency.

The Colonel is too late. While he was refraining from mentioning what he proposes to do along heroic lines, President Wilson got busy and did something that will appeal to all the heroic mood there is in this country.
Republican Leader Mann says the President wants to bring on war with Germany, and, if there were any truth in that, the Colonel would have to be a pacifist in order to be put forward as "the antithesis of Wilson."

of objecting to the attitude of Republicans, because we expect them to find fault with the opposition. However, if Mr. Mann is the Republican leader, he puts the Republican party in the attitude of being indifferent to the rights of this country on the high seas. His strictures on the President for protecting this country's international rights were untimely and ill-advised, but if the Republican party can stand it the Democracy surely can.

CURRENT COMMENT

But why should it cost so much more to hold a primary than it does to hold an election?—Durham Herald.

Contrary to an opinion expressed the fisheries commissioners who have been meeting in Wilmington are not necessarily expert fishermen.—Charlotte

The Wilmington (N. C.) Star enthusiastically endorses the Chronicle's recent editorials urging the people of Augusta to buy only from, or through, Augusta merchants in replacing the million dollars or more of personal property lost by them in the recent great fire, and is kind enough to say that the Chronicle took a broad and patriotic view of the situation when it urged them to accept advertisements from outside merchants who desired to invade the Augusta field, in competition with local merchants, just at that time.—Augusta

The New England cotton manufacturers are complaining that the South does not seem to be ready to sell cotton. "The South," they say, "is holding very firm on all kinds of cotton, with a rising tendency on extra staples." Time and tide wait for no man. The New England manufacturers only had to call on the South for cotton to get it, low market or high market, but the time is passed. The Southern farmer got into control of the situation some months ago, and it would appear that he is in control now, and for good. When the farmer once gets the upper hand of a thing he is hard to shake off. The time is coming when New England or any other section that wants his cotton will have to take it at what he is willing to let it go at.—Charlotte Observer.

NEW OIL COMPANY

Organized for the Purpose of Producing and Refining Crude Oil.
Tulsa, Okla., April 21.—Harry F. Sinclair, multi-millionaire, on his return from New York tonight announced that he practically has succeeded in organizing a company capitalized at $50, 000,000 for the producing and refining of crude oil. The new concern will be known as the Sinclair Oil & Refining Company and headquarters will be established in this city.
Mr. Sinclair denied the report that the new company is being organized to compete with the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Sinclair said that the company has already taken over the Cudary Refining Company and a number of other independent companies.

FUNERAL OF SILAS LUCAS

Well Known Citizen of Wilson Has Passed Away at Age of 64.
(Special Star Correspondence.) Wilson, N. C., April 21.—The funeral services of Silas Lucas, who died

Lucas was a consistent Methodist for over 40 years, coming to Wilson from the Barefoot Mill church years ago.
Born and reared in this country, Silas Lucas was one of the foremost citizens tivities of life. Until the beginning of the year several thousand acres of land

64 years old, and his wife and four children survive him.

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, MD.

THE THIRTEENTH BACHELOR Whose business is it whether a man marries? If anybody's, it is the doctor's.
Tabulation of the first random hundred bachelors over thirty shows fairly representative conditions, as follows: Twenty-two of them are afflicted with a communicable disease, and it would be a calamity for such a man to marry—it would mean almost certain invalidism for his unfortunate bride, and probably in the end an un-sexing operation.
Thirty-five of them are given to alcoholic indulgence. While a drinking man may now and then remain virtuous in his living, the presumption is that he will not do so, because alcohol dissolves the veneer of self-restraint and releases a man's primitive impulses, removes his ordinary cautious judgment and leads him to excesses he would never commit in a perfectly sober moment. Nor must a man become frankly intoxicated to lose his self-control; it only takes a social glass or two to cut through the veneer. So these thirty-five occasional drinkers are to be classed as unsexing husbands. We will leave them to their selfish lives.
The remaining forty-three bachelors size up like this: Eighteen of them are courtiers, have been courting the girls for from two to twenty years, and never making a very determined effort to have a wedding day fixed, on the ground that their salaries are not sufficient to support a wife in the style to which the girl has always been accustomed. Which is all rubbish, of course. The truth of the matter is that these eighteen weak-kneed ones never will marry voluntarily—they are too lazy. The remaining twenty-five bachelors are "men about town." They have no fixed associates other than the hangers-on at the club, pool-room, bowling alley or street corner. They are on extraordinarily familiar terms with the class of girls who seem to enjoy being insulted by familiarities of young men in public. They don't want to marry, because they don't meet girls who inspire respect. The girls they know so well are the kind who patronize public dances, theatres and such places without responsible escort. In short, these twenty-five bachelors have no incentive to marriage. So far, they find "variety the spice of life," and it will be quite a while yet before they discover that too much spice spoils the joy of living.

It was Bachelor Number Thirteen, in the above list, an eligible man, and a really desirable sort of man, who gave the only worthy excuse for his single condition. Here is what he said: "My girl is beyond my reach. She earns sixteen dollars a week, and dresses like sixty. Took her and her mother out the other night. The mater wanted to take in a main two-bills show, but I was strong for a $2 show, and we blew six bones for the show I was wanted. I told you, with my little forty-dollar income I can't finance the proposition."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

College Man Would Try Footy

Please tell me what dose of asafetida one should take for nervousness. I am a student, aged twenty-one.

Answer—Fie, fie, young man. Take a five-mile walk. One pill (five grains) of asafetida three or four times a day won't hurt you, at any rate.

HAIR OF THE DOG

One of your articles alluded to the influence of certain emanations upon persons subject to spasmodic or bronchial asthma. I never have an attack unless I visit my husband's mother's home, where there are two dogs.
Sometimes I am in the house only a few minutes when the attack comes on.
The house is but a few miles from our home. Do you think it possible that the attack is in my case produced by inhaling dust or emanations from the bodies of these dogs?

Answer—Very likely. Some individuals suffer an attack if they ride after a horse, or enter a stable. Others suffer if a cat enters the room. Many victims have attacks if they eat certain proteins—certain shell-fish, eggs, cheese. In other cases the foreign protein is produced within the body, in some hidden and neglected septic focus, by bacteria. In any case, the problem is, find the protein to which the patient is sensitive, and minimize the patient against that protein by a prolonged course of prophylactic injections—a hair of the dog does the trick. The principle works successfully in many cases of hay fever, when the particular pollen can be identified.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Doddson's Liver Tonic" Is Harmless To Clean Your Stagnant Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.
Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones.
Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Doddson's Liver Tonic tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Doddson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.
I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Doddson's Liver Tonic will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless, doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

WILL INSTITUTE SEPA GROTTO IN WILMINGTON

New Organization for Encouraging Social Side of Masonry.

Grand Standard Bearer of Mystic Order of the Enchanted Realm of the Veiled Prophets Will Arrive This Morning.

For the development of the social side of Masonry in Wilmington and throughout this section of North Carolina, a large number of Master Masons have formed a class for Sepa Grotto of the Mystic Order of the Enchanted Realm of the Veiled Prophets, which will be instituted tonight at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Temple by Grand Standard Bearer E. Craig Pelouse, of Richmond, Va., who will arrive in the city this morning with a dispensation and authority to start the new organization.

The M. O. V. P. E. R. has the same relations to the blue lodges of Masonry that the Shriners have to the higher orders of Freemasonry and there are many grottoes of the order throughout the country. However, Wilmington has the honor of organizing the first grotto for North Carolina.

The officers elected for Sepa Grotto, the official name of the Wilmington organization of the order, are as follows: Monarch, Mr. E. L. Davis; prophet, Mr. H. A. Huguenin; master of ceremonies, Mr. C. F. Strunk.

The purposes of the Veiled Prophets as expressed in their creed is to draw Master Masons of different blue lodges into closer and more friendly relationship, to create and maintain a spirit of fraternity among Masons, to discourage jealousy, enmity and ill-feeling, to teach that a Mason is not merely a member of one blue lodge but belongs to the fraternity at large, to build up and strengthen the character and individuality of the Mason, to teach that a Mason must not be judged by the social qualities and wealth that he possesses, to teach that Masonry must not be used to advance the material welfare of any man, and to teach that Masons are brothers on the street as well as in the lodge room. Occupying a field not heretofore held by any regularly organized body, the M. O. V. P. E. R. has found at once a legitimate and an almost unlimited sphere of action. Its ceremonies are weird and spectacular, its ritual unique, and its mysteries startling. These, with gorgeous costumes and magnificent stage settings, combine to supply all the sport of the most mysterious Master Mason could ask for and fill him with a wholesome desire to confer the same delight upon his brothers. The Grotto provides a place and opportunity for generosity and levity, where one may leave dull care and earth behind and revel in clean, bright fun and many good-fellowship, free from all that debases or leads to excess. Very large and successful Grottoes are now working in the states of New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, Maryland, Connecticut, Rhode Island and the District of Columbia.

During the early part of the year 1889, a group of Master Masons, good and true, of Hamilton Lodge, No. 130, F. & A. M., averse to trespassing upon the dignified earnestness of the Masonic work, and anxious to see that their candidates should be impressed by its beauty and solemnity, and not distracted by frivolous dissipation; yet, feeling the need of warmer closer communion, were wont to tarry after lodge closed for social intercourse and the promotion of good-fellowship. After diligently prospecting for fun and mischief a rich vein was discovered which led to the mother lodge of pure good-fellowship, and opened before them the Enchanted Realm, with its inexhaustible treasures to gladden the heart and bind men in warmer friendships.

None of the founders at first thought of their little clan as likely ever to have other than a social life, but within eight months, 113 Master Masons had been initiated into the new order, and it was evident that the organization was destined to spread abroad—it was too good to be confined to only a few—men were hungry for just the sort of cheerfulness and companionship that flourished within the Enchanted Realm, and many members of the Masonic Fraternity journeyed from afar to gain admission to the charmed circle. Then came demands for the extension of the order. In response to these demands, and for the purpose of perpetuating and allowing other Master Masons to partake of what had given the founders pleasure, the Supreme Council of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm was legally organized on June 13th, 1910, with power to issue charters to subordinate Grottoes at its discretion.

JOY-RIDERS SMASHED CAR

While Owner, Mr. J. R. Moore, Was Attending Services at Tabernacle Last Night—Hit Big Tree.

While the owner, Mr. J. R. Moore, of Oak Plantation, Brunswick county, was attending services last night at the Tabernacle, two white boys, whose names are not known, attempted to steal or take a joy ride in his car, but as driven the machine less than a block when it smashed into a tree on Third, between Castle and Queen streets.

No one saw the boys when they started off with the car, but when the car hit the big sycamore, after running a short distance on the sidewalk, it made considerable noise, and the occupants of the house nearby ran to the door in time to see the boys jump out and run away. The incident occurred about 9 o'clock, just before the evening services were concluded.

The front end of the car, including the tank and the engine, was so badly damaged that it had to be towed to a garage, where it was left for the night. Sergeant Lane of the police department made an investigation, but up to a late hour last night the identity of the boys had not been discovered. The car was a five-passenger Ford.

COUNTY CONVENTION TODAY

Delegates to Democratic State Convention to Be Chosen at Meeting in the Court House.

For the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic State convention which meets in Raleigh on Thursday of next week, the New Hanover Democrats will hold a county convention today at noon in the Court House. All Democrats in good and regular standing are authorized to attend as delegates and to take part in the proceedings.

Mr. J. Herbert Johnston, chairman of the New Hanover Democratic Executive committee, will call the convention to order. It will then be formally organized by the election of a permanent chairman and secretary. The only business to come before the convention will be the selection of delegates to the State convention although it is probable that resolutions endorsing President Wilson's policies will be passed. Whether or not the delegates will be instructed to vote for any particular delegates from this Congressional district to the National convention was not known yesterday but it was not thought likely that they will be.

New Hanover is authorized to send 12 delegates to the State convention or has this number of votes. Following is the number of votes that each precinct has in the county convention today:

First ward, 10; Second ward 11; Third 17; Fourth 13; Fifth, 21; Sixth 4; Seagate 2; Cape Fear 2; Seven Mile 1; Windsor Park 1; Federal Point 1; Masonboro 1.

This is the last day in which candidates can file notice of their intention of running in the primaries in June. The convention in political circles centered chiefly in the county commissioners, the terms of three members of the present board expiring in December. In addition to those whose names have already been mentioned, friends of Mr. W. E. Worth are urging him to enter the race and he is giving the matter serious consideration. He had not, however, reached a decision last night as to what he will do. It was also understood yesterday that Mr. J. H. Rader was seriously considering becoming a candidate for commissioner.

MR. CANNON MOVES HERE

Burgaw-Loses Good Citizen to Wilmington—Motor Car Business.

This week's issue of the Pender Chronicle says: "Friends of Mr. W. A. Cannon, who since 1904 has been a resident here, will learn with a great deal of regret of his decision to move from here to Wilmington, which he does this week. Mr. Cannon has been general manager of the Garysburg Manufacturing Company, a large lumber concern here, for the past ten years; has operated a farm just outside of the limits of the town; and has always taken a live interest in public affairs. Recently he has gone into the automobile business, and has a new car, a Buick, which he has just purchased. He moves to Wilmington because it is more centrally located for his business."

"Mrs. Cannon and the children have made hosts of friends here, who will regret exceedingly to see them leave us."

MR. D. H. KING DEAD

Father of Mr. V. R. C. King, Passes Away in New York.

News of the death of Mr. David Hazlett King, father of Mr. V. R. C. King, superintendent of the Wilmington district of the Atlantic Coast Line, which occurred at the former's home in New York City Thursday night at 8 o'clock, was received here yesterday.

Mr. King was 47 years old. He was ill a very short time; and his son was at his bedside when the end came, having left here Saturday evening last.

NEGRO DROWNED IN RIVER

Jake Loftin, Freight Handler of Clyde Line, Fell From Gang Plank Into Water and Went Down.

The victim of a peculiar accident, Jake Loftin, 30 years old, colored, an experienced freight handler, who has been in the service of the local offices of the Clyde Steamship Company for a number of years, was drowned yesterday afternoon at 5:25 o'clock when he fell off the gang plank between the steamer Cherokee and the pier at the foot of Castle street.

At the time of the accident, the negro, who was coming off the vessel pushing a truck with two sacks of coffee in front of him, suddenly toppled over and fell into the 12-foot stretch of water which separated the ship from the pier.

Although a number of bystanders saw him fall into the water, he never came to the surface at all, or at least if he did he was not seen by those who were watching for his reappearance. It is thought that possibly the heavy sea and tide which was running at the time might have carried him under the vessel.

Efforts to recover his body met with no success, although considerable time was spent in fishing for him with poles and hooks. Mr. C. J. Becker, agent of the Clyde Line, said that the negro had been in the employ of the company here for the past eight years or more. Mr. Becker notified the police of the drowning, and further efforts to recover the body will be made to day.

MR. J. V. VANN DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon at the Hospital from Pneumonia.

Mr. J. V. Vann, who has been in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line as a member of a force of workmen employed in repairing freight cars between this city and Boardman, passed away yesterday afternoon at the James Walker Memorial Hospital at about 3:30 o'clock, following an attack of pneumonia.

He is survived by four sisters, Mrs. E. E. Russ and Miss Lottie Vann, of No. 314 Queen street, and Mrs. E. E. Southernland and Mrs. E. E. Carter, of Myrtle Grove Sound. One small brother, Coley Vann, who makes his home with one of his sisters, also survives him. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at his late residence, No. 314 Queen street.

MEMORIAL DAY ORATOR NAMED BY DAUGHTERS

Rev. B. F. Huske, of Newbern, Will Be Speaker Here.

Cape Fear Chapter Arranging For Annual Exercises in Memory of Confederate Dead—Committees to Be Appointed.

Rev. B. F. Huske, rector of Christ Episcopal church in Newbern, one of the ablest young ministers of the Protestant Episcopal denomination in North Carolina, will be the speaker at the annual Memorial day exercises in Wilmington on May 10th. These exercises are held under the auspices of the Cape Fear Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, which has charge of the arrangements for the occasion.

The members of the chapter were gratified to learn that Rev. Mr. Huske had accepted the invitation to make the oration. He is a son of Mr. A. S. Huske, of Fayetteville, and is well known in Wilmington, having visited here frequently. He is an eloquent and forceful speaker. As rector of Christ's church in Newbern he has done splendid work and greatly endeared himself to the people of that progressive city.

Following the oration which will be delivered at Oakdale cemetery, wreaths, prepared by the Daughters, will be placed upon the graves of the Confederate soldiers buried there. A special musical programme will be rendered. The exercises will probably be late in the afternoon.

COURT WILL ADJOURN TODAY

Trial of All Jury Cases Completed Yesterday—Recess Taken for Good Friday Services.

Superior Court will adjourn today after having been in session for three weeks continuously. All cases for jury trial at this term were completed yesterday and the motion docket will be taken up by Judge Peebles this morning.

Although yesterday was Good Friday and the banks and many of the business houses were closed up for the day, Judge Peebles kept the court in session but took a recess at 11 o'clock until 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in order that those desiring to do so might attend divine services.

In the case of Mrs. Annie Smith against J. T. West and the Wilmington Door & Lumber Company, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $555 with interest from September 26, 1915. According to the evidence Mr. West had given a mortgage on some property which he later sold to the Wilmington Door & Lumber Company. The latter contended that in buying the property they did not assume the obligation to pay off the indebtedness. However, the jury decided against the company and through its attorney, J. A. McNorton, Esq., the concern took an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Before adjourning court for the afternoon, Judge Peebles took occasion to remind the members of the bar that the court highly disapproved of putting court officers on the stand as character witnesses.

OUTDOOR SERVICE TONIGHT.

Adjutant Yates Will Conduct Meeting at Front and Princess Streets.

Adjutant Yates, officer in charge of the local corps of the Salvation Army, will treat the members of the bar to a meeting in the Tabernacle tonight. He will conduct two services, one at Front and Princess streets, at 7:30 o'clock, followed by a meeting in the hall at the corner of Front and Dock streets. The latter service will begin at 8:15 o'clock. At each of these services there will be a number of short soul-stirring songs and solos, together with some helpful gospel address. The public is cordially invited to attend each of these meetings.

Owing to the Tabernacle meetings, the only service that will be held by the Army on Sunday will be the Sunday school at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning to which all, especially those not attending other Sunday schools, are invited.

A Moment of Great Decisions

This is a moment of great decisions. Nations and rulers are grappling with grim problems and reaching conclusions fraught with far-reaching consequences. To "do or die" is the one decision forced by circumstance upon millions of warring brothers of the human race.

How simple, how easy the decision required to qualify YOU for a higher rank in the army of progress. A final conclusion, reached now, to SAVE FIRST and fit yourself to command rather than to be commanded, will broaden the horizon of your hopes. Can you decide otherwise than for serious saving at this bank?

WEDDING OF MUCH INTEREST

SOLEMNIZED AT TABOR, N. C.

Tabor, N. C., April 21.—A wedding of much interest in social circles of this section as well as throughout North and South Carolina was that of Mr. William Edgar Cunningham, of Chester, S. C., and Miss Elizabeth Pettit Floyd, of Liberty Hill, S. C. The marriage took place in the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon.

The marriage was one of the most beautiful taking place here for many years. The church had been beautifully decorated with long and short leaf pine, intermingled with Southern smilax, against a background of white.

Promptly at 3:30, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride party entered the church, first the little ribbon girls, Annabel Floyd and Harriet Lewis. They were followed by the flower girls, little Leona and Elizabeth Lewis. Then came the ushers, Mr. D. F. McGowan and Dr. G. C. Cox.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. A. Floyd, of Greenville, S. C., by whom she was given away. Her costume was a lovely fawn colored traveling suit with accessories to match.

The groom entered with his best man, Mr. J. L. Lewis, and met the bride at the altar, where the ring ceremony was impressively performed, under a huge wedding bell, by Rev. W. L. Boggs, of Greenville, S. C.

The happy pair immediately left by automobile with the good wishes of scores of friends, for Clarendon, N. C., where they boarded the train for their future home, Chester, S. C.

The fair young bride was the youngest daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Joseph W. Floyd, and the groom a leading, progressive farmer of Chester, S. C.

On Tuesday evening before the marriage, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. L. Lewis, a reception was tendered the bride party. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. D. A. Humphrey and were soon ushered into the drawing room, where the many and costly gifts were on display. Later refreshments were served in the dining room. Here the color scheme was pink and green and in the center of the table stood a miniature bride.

Misses Cunningham and Newton entertained with music throughout the evening. Those present were Rev. W. L. Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Harper, Mr. Ernest Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Justus, Misses Lorena Newton, Marie Cunningham, Margaret Lewis, Dr. G. S. Cox and Messrs. R. C. Harrelson, H. C. Hughes and S. J. Speals, of Wyoming, Del.

Setting Hen Disappears.

About 4 o'clock yesterday morning a thief secured a setting hen at the residence of Mrs. H. E. Peterson, No. 1808 Castle street, although the foregoing is arrived at only by inference, and the hen may have just gotten tired of her job and strolled away. Or she may have been carried off by a possum or a mink! Her disappearance was discovered about 4:30 o'clock. The police were notified and Officer W. H. Kernon and one of the city's bloodhounds arrived on the scene a few minutes later. The dog trailed the thief, or maybe it was the hen, to a neighbor's porch. The eggs were undisturbed. Up to a late hour last night the hen had not returned.

To those who have endured for years the itching torments of eczema or other such skin eruptions, the relief that the first use of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap usually gives is incredible. After all the suffering they have endured and all the useless treatments they have spent good money for, they cannot believe anything so simple, mild and inexpensive can stop the itching and burning INSTANTLY! And they find it still more wonderful that the improvement is permanent and that Resinol really drives away the eruption completely in a very short time. Perhaps there is a pleasant surprise like this in store for you. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

A Good Soap For Baby Skin

A good baby soap should contain soothing, healing properties to prevent the rashes and chafings to which babies are liable. That is why so many physicians recommend Resinol Soap.

heard of Mr. Little and his speech and it is believed that he made many friends.

In fact, Mr. Little has become so well known in Robeson county, having visited the people so frequently, that little trouble is experienced in getting large audiences to hear him.

While in this vicinity Mr. Little took occasion to meet the people in the interest of his candidacy for Congress.

This section is strong for him, and many of the young men of the county are working night and day for his nomination, and the "phophets" are forecasting his success.

Warning

This season's wheat was the worst in 50 years; badly damaged by too much rain. Flour from such wheat is weak and won't rise properly. But we got the cream of what little high grade wheat was raised, by sending our own men out for it and paying premium prices to get it.

If you want to be sure of getting the best baking results now—if you want to make certain of getting flour made from high grade wheat, ask for Valier's Dainty Flour. It may cost you a few cents more, but it is guaranteed to make better biscuits, cake and pastry.

Wilmington, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—

Prosperous are the times on this side of the water. Everywhere you turn there is a spirit of busy-ness. Factory chimneys are belching smoke, mines are busy supplying them. We are busy raising bumper crops and sharing prosperity in a goodly measure.

There is another spirit abroad in the land, too—which is showing this prosperity. Everywhere men are dressing up and letting their fellow-men know that they are alive to the order of the day.

But—The better the times the more reason for thrift in buying clothes or anything else.

It is time to grade up in buying your clothes—to insist on value for every dollar you spend. The success of Kuppenheimer Clothes is based on greater value-giving, likewise the success of our store.

The next time you have a chance, pay us a visit and let us show you how and why these Kuppenheimer Clothes excel. We want to show you why a Kuppenheimer suit wears so well—how finely it is hand-tailored, and other interesting points about them. It will interest you.

We have a full line of Stetson and Knox Hats.

DR. BARR'S INSTALLATION IS DECLARED ILLEGAL AND NULL

Jefferson Presbytery Directed to Remove LaFayette Church From Roll.

New Orleans, April 21.—The commission appointed by the General Assembly of the Northern Presbyterian and the Southern Presbyterian churches in a joint report made public here today held that Rev. Dr. J. C. Barr's installation as pastor of the LaFayette Presbyterian church independent of this city, was illegal and null. Dr. Barr's case, it was said, was one of the instances of alleged violation of comity between the two branches of Presbyterians, for settlement of which the Southern Assembly in New Orleans, and the Northern Assembly in Rochester appointed commissioners in May, 1915.

About two years ago the LaFayette congregation here seceded from the New Orleans Presbytery (Southern) because of a dispute concerning jurisdiction over church property. The local congregation declared itself an independent Presbyterian church and Dr. Barr was admitted to membership in the Jefferson Presbytery, of the synod of Texas, affiliated with the Northern Presbyterians. The joint commission to the General Assemblies of both churches.

The joint commission held Dr. Barr was subject to the Jefferson Presbytery's jurisdiction; that his conduct and that of the executive commission of Jefferson Presbytery "was not in harmony with comity agreements and to be deeply regretted, and that the reception of the LaFayette congregation's call to Dr. Barr and his installation as pastor were beyond the Presbytery's powers. The joint commission directed Jefferson Presbytery to remove the LaFayette church from its roll and assign Dr. Barr to a new field.

ARRANGE FOR NEGOTIATIONS WITH RAILROAD EMPLOYEES

Officials of Roads in Three Territories Meet in New York.

New York, April 21.—Presidents or other executive officials of the railroads in all three territories affected by the demands of the four brotherhoods of railway employees for higher wages and an eight-hour day met here today to make preliminary arrangements for the coming negotiations with the executives of the brotherhoods for a settlement of the disputes. A committee consisting of the secretaries of the three groups of railroad managers—John G. Walber, of the eastern roads; J. W. Higgins, of the western, and C. E. Hill, of the southwestern, was appointed to meet the officers of the brotherhoods to arrange for a time and place for carrying on negotiations. It was thought likely that either New York or Chicago would suit the wishes of both sides.

The demands of the employees were presented to the railroads individually on April 1 with the request that the roads join in settling the questions at issue collectively. They were given until April 23 to make a reply which is expected to soon be forthcoming.

SECURITIES AMOUNTING TO $400,000 ARE FOUND

Edward J. Quigley is Arrested by Postal Authorities.

Has in His Possession All the Papers Stolen from Mail Wagon on Ferry Boat at New York February 26th, Last

Baltimore, April 21.—A man giving the name of Edward J. Quigley, having in his possession all the securities stolen on a ferry boat at New York on February 26th, was arrested here this evening.

The arrest was a piece of good luck by the postal authorities. Quigley was seized on suspicion of being wanted in St. Louis for raising money orders. An alleged confederate, named George F. Weddall, was arrested with him, but held on a criminal charge. Quigley fought against arrest, tried to get a loaded pistol from his pocket, but was overpowered by the inspectors and the pistol and a quantity of what he believed to be cocaine taken from him. His alleged confederate submitted to arrest but denied they knew each other.

Quigley's grip contained a large bundle, inside which were found certificates of stock of aggregate face value of $400,000. A slight draft for $25,000 drawn on S. B. Chaplin & Company, of New York, by Smith, Lockhart & Company, of Baltimore, also was found in the satchel, attached to certificates for Union Pacific & Northern Pacific stock. Chief Postoffice Inspector J. C. Koons said he believed that the satchel contained all the securities sent from Baltimore in the registered mail pouches stolen on the New York ferry boat.

Quigley said the satchel was left on the train by a man and woman who got off at Philadelphia and that he took it. This was all that he would say after three hours' examination in the Federal office here. He said he was on his way to New Orleans from New York.

One theory of the postoffice people here is that he came intending to make a deal with the persons owning the securities. Thomas F. Benson, who was released in New York today on bail on the charge of stealing some other pouches, is thought to be a confederate of Quigley. One took the jewelry and the other the securities, in the officials' opinion.

Quigley said he was 36 years old and lives in New York but that he belongs in Ridgefield Park, N. J. Windfall said he met Quigley on the train, and that he came to Baltimore for work.

ROBBERY OCCURRED ON FERRY BOAT BOUND FOR NEW YORK

New York, April 21.—The robbery for which Edward J. Quigley was arrested at Baltimore tonight, occurred here February 26, when four packages of registered mail were removed from an automobile truck while in transit on a ferry boat from midtown Manhattan, N. J., station of the Central Railroad of New Jersey to Liberty street, New York. The packages, three of which were from Baltimore, D. C., an done from Baltimore, Md., were stolen from mail pouches.

It was announced later that many thousands of dollars worth of securities sent from Baltimore and addressed to Potter, Choate and Prentice, members of the New York Stock Exchange, had been taken from the automobile truck. The New York Trust Company also announced that two railroad gold bonds, which had been mailed to them from Baltimore, were missing.

MEDILL McCORMICK ATTACKS PRESIDENT'S FOREIGN POLICY.

Illinois Republican Convention Endorses Peoria, Ill., April 21.—Medill McCormick, of Chicago, as temporary chairman of the Republican State convention here today, in criticizing President Wilson's foreign policy, declared that the Americans might "almost hear across the Rio Grande the snigger which greets our futile admonitions." At the same time, he said, "Great Britain and Germany, with unceasing disdain, received in short succession the communications of the President."

The convention endorsed Senator L. Y. Sherman, of Illinois, for President, nominated 29 presidential electors and then recessed until September 19, when the delegates will re-convene to adopt a platform.

The President announced that the grandchild weighed eight and a half pounds. Mrs. Wilson was given a photograph of the baby.

While at the hospital Mrs. Wilson was escorted through some of the wards and visited the sick.

The President visited his daughter at this time because she will leave the hospital tomorrow for her home in Williamstown, Mass. Mr. Sayre will arrive here tonight to accompany her home.

President and Mrs. Wilson returned to Washington.

PASSENGER FOUND DEAD ON FULLMAN CAR AT HAMLET, N. C.

Apparently Wealthy Pennsylvanian Evidently Died Suddenly in Berth.

Hamlet, N. C., April 21.—A Seaboard Railroad train No. 4, from Jacksonville, arrived at Hamlet this morning, the porter on one of the Pullman cars discovered that one of the passengers could not be awakened. Upon investigation it was found that he was dead. Further investigation disclosed that the passenger, a man of about 65, was Dr. E. H. Warren, of Warren, Pa., a mileage book giving his address at St. Petersburg, Fla., and Warren, Pa.

The body was removed from the train at Hamlet and turned over to an undertaker and communication had with parties at Warren Pa. The deceased was apparently a man of wealth and influence and his death must have been sudden as there was no evidence of any struggle. The railroad authorities are trying to locate his family.

GOVERNMENT RADIO MESSAGES REACHING FOREIGN AGENTS

Report Regarding Lake Bluff Wireless Station is Investigated.

Chicago, April 21.—Results of a department of justice investigation into reports that contents of government wireless messages were reaching representatives of foreign governments through leakage at the wireless station at the Lake Bluff Naval Training School, near here, were forwarded to Washington today.

Hinton G. Clabaugh, chief of the local office of the department of justice declined to say that his investigation disclosed.

"Complaint was made," said Mr. Clabaugh, "that H. W. Fischer, chief clerk to the commandant at the training school where the wireless is located, was living in the same house with Hugo Silverstri, Austro-Hungarian consul. I did find them living at the same house, but I cannot say more as to my investigation."

Mr. Clabaugh's information also included a story that a telegraph instrument had been heard in the Fischer home. Mr. Fischer denied that there were any telegraph instruments in his home. Silverstri said he would welcome an investigation.
